Adopted by the NAIC Receivership & Insolvency (E) Task Force Oct. 11, 2022

BACKGROUND OF THE

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

When a property & casualty insurer is liquidated, our regulatory system mitigates the adverse effects on policyholders and claimants through the state insurance resolution system. This system includes the coordinated management of the liquidation and wind down of the insurance company, in accordance with the state's receivership laws, and the payment of statutorily defined "covered claims" by the state guaranty fund system. In today's technological world, the insurance financial regulators, insurance receivers and the guaranty funds need advance planning for the transition from a troubled insurance company to liquidation.

This model Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is flexible and can be tailored the individual state insurance department and the specific troubled property and casualty insurer situation.

The MOU is intended to be used to facilitate transitional planning and preparation, starting when a troubled property and casualty insurer faces a material risk of being liquidated as insolvent¹. Such a liquidation creates various obligations for the insurance receiver and triggers the guaranty funds' statutory duties to pay "covered claims." One goal of this transitional planning is to ensure that the guaranty funds are prepared and have the appropriate information necessary to assume their statutory duties to protect policy claimants promptly upon liquidation. Another important goal of this early estate planning process is to facilitate the receiver's duties upon liquidation, which include transition of claims to the guaranty funds, marshalling the remaining company assets and resolving claims against the insurer.

This planning process necessarily involves the sharing of confidential information about the troubled company that is protected by statutory confidentiality and privilege provisions. The parties sharing such information intend that it stay confidential and privileged and that no such protection be waived. This MOU is intended to document an agreement to that effect. The parties are the (1) Commissioner, (2) the insurance receiver if appointed (and who may be added later) or a standing insurance receivership office, if applicable, (3) the potentially triggered guaranty funds, and (4) the National Conference of Insurance Guaranty Funds ("NCIGF").² If separate from a state's receivership office, the state's insurance financial regulatory office could also be a party to the MOU, as the MOU can be tailored to the specific state.

The MOU provides that all non-public planning information provided to the guaranty funds under it shall be kept confidential, with the protective mechanism to maintain confidentiality spelled out. Specifically, confidential information initially may only to be shared with NCIGF and guaranty fund staff, agents, and counsel and, importantly, may only be used for purposes of planning for liquidation of the troubled company. Confidential information will not be shared with industry representatives who sit on or participate in a guaranty fund's Board of Directors until such time as the information is necessary for the Board to discharge statutory duties or consider or take for official action. Confidential information received by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to its examination authority, which based upon NAIC Model 390 typically is "confidential by law and privileged, shall not be subject to [insert open records, freedom of information, sunshine or other appropriate phrase], shall not be subject to subpoena, and shall not be subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action," is as shared agreed to retain such privileged status, particularly given the common interest of the parties in the MOU in facilitating the prospective liquidation proceedings and the insurance resolution mechanism. As further protection for the privileged status of such confidential information, the guaranty funds are obligated under the MOU to defend against any attempt to discover any confidential or privileged information shared with them and to notify the other parties to the MOU of discovery or disclosure request.

² See <https://www.ncigf.org/>. In general, the legal relationships between the troubled company and the regulatory authorities will be governed comprehensively by appropriate statutes and regulations in the state insurance code, thus generally there is no need for the troubled company be a party to the MOU. There may be, however, considerations in particular cases where it would be prudent to add the troubled company as a party, particularly if slow or incomplete compliance with disclosure and reporting requirements are an issue. For example, additional enforcement mechanisms could be added and troubled company cooperation with the prospective receiver and the guaranty funds could be spelled out in more detail.

The proposed MOU is a template that contains the essential terms of a confidential information sharing agreement and can easily be customized to address specific issues that may arise in the course of addressing troubled company concerns and in planning for liquidation.
